Let us be Merciful to Ourselves.
The physical structure of the strongest human being is vulnerable everywhere. Our bodies are endowed by nature with a certain negative power, which protects them to some extent from unwholesome influences; but this protection is imperfect, and cannot be safely relied on in unhealthy regions, or under circumstances of more than ordinary danger. Therefore, it is wisdom, it is prudence, it is common sense, to provide against such contingencies, by taking an antidote in advance; in other words by fortifying the system with a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the most complete protective against all the epidemic and endemic maladies that has ever been administered in any country. As a remedy for Dyspepsia there is no remedy that will compare with it. Whoever suffers the pangs of Indigestion, anywhere on the face of the earth where Hostetter's Bitters can be procured, does so voluntarily; for as truly as Truth exists, this invaluable Tonic and Alterative would restore his disordered stomach to a healthy condition. To the Billious it is also especially recommended, and in cases of confirmed Constipation it affords speedy and permanent relief. In Canada, the West Indies and Australasia, the Bitters rank above all other medicines of the class, and the demand for them in all foreign countries increases every season.

Hostetter's Bitters
Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Fourth street.

The Way it is Done.
A correspondent of the Washington Chronicle, writing from Montgomery, Ala., says:

"The Mississippi Legislature passed a law prohibiting negroes from acquiring lands or real estate. This was promptly overruled by the United States authorities. Whereupon the Legislatures, both of Mississippi and Alabama, have passed a law making the man or owner of the property who rents or leases a negro a house or land, responsible for everything he buys—his meat, his bread, his doctor's bill, and even his taxes. Of course nobody will rent a black man a house or lease him land, under such a law, and of course also the negro will have to be driven out upon the highway, and become a vagrant, and hence subject to the vagrant law."

SOME of our old fogy contemporaries are exercised over the fact that bonds of Massachusetts are are worth thirty per cent. more than those of the United States. The reason is, that in Massachusetts radical politics prevail, conservatism having been successfully pitched overboard long ago. There all voters must be able to read and write, and the ballot of a black, possessing the requisite degree of intelligence and education, counts for just as much as the ballot of a white man.

OUR HARRISBURG LETTER.

Special Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.

HARRISBURG, February 14, 1866.

The bill for the relief of the people of Chambersburg, appropriating $500,000 to relieve their necessities, passed the Senate to-day, and will become a law as soon as it is signed by the Governor. When the names of the different Senators were called on the final passage, many of them gave their reasons for voting yea or nay, and amongst them Mr. Graham who made a short but eloquent speech in its favor, which I will send you to-morrow complete as it was too beautiful, if the term may be used, to condense.

Mr. Herron, to-night, read in place two bills—one providing that all partitions heretofore made, wherein the Sheriff has allotted the purparts, shall be valid as if allotted and decreed by the Court from which the writ of partition issued. The other provides that where any conveyances of real estate have been made by any alien, or by any corporation of this State, to any citizen of the United States, since the passage of the act to enable citizens to hold titles which had been held by aliens and corporations, approved January 9th 1861, such citizen shall be entitled to the benefits, as though the conveyances were made before the passage thereof, and shall hold, and may convey, such real estate, and the title therof, indefeasibly, as to any right of escheat in this commonwealth, by reason of such real estate having been held by an alien or corporation, not authorized by the laws of this State to hold the same.

The bill amending the revenue laws of the State, unanimously passed both branches of the Legislature. It will of course be signed by the Governor. Considerable opposition was made to it by the Railroad Companies, but for once they were not all powerful.

To give you some idea what will be gained by Allegheny county, and some of your neighboring counties, by its passage, I give you the following figures, based upon the assessment made three years ago. Allegheny county will gain or save, $71,671; Beaver, $5,993; Butler, $,10; Greene, $8,241; Mercer, $13,288; Washington, $27,913; and Westmoreland, $21,181. For this change the people of the Commonwealth are more indebted to the State Treasurer, Mr. Kemble, than any other man, as he not only recommended it in his report, but did not cease his exertions until it was passed finally.

Mr. McKee this evening offered two bills. One authorizes the School Directors of Snowden township to add and collect a percentage not exceeding six per centum on all bounty taxes assessed in the township in 1865, and not paid before the first of May, 1866, and the same increase on all county taxes assessed in said township in 1866 and not paid before the first of October of this year.

The other incorporates the Pittsburgh and Campbell's Run Coal Railroad Company, and names James Wood, Joseph Ross, W. J. Richardson, Wm. Glass and John Ross as incorporators. They are to have power to open mines, sink shafts, erect machinery, to make and operate railroads from any portion of their lands in Robinson township, Allegheny county, within about a mile of the village of Mansfield, and to connect with any railroad in Allegheny at whatever points they may desire. They are to hold not exceeding one thousand acres of land; the capital is to be $250,000; and books are to be opened in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. The fifth section provides that the offices for the transaction of business shall be in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

LATE OIL INTELLIGENCE.

TIDEOUTE, February 12, 1866.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—Gentlemen, notwithstanding the cold weather, and the depressed condition of the oil market, our oil men are diligently pursuing their operations. Those who have struck oil are pumping their wells, and those who are in search of oil are drilling deeper. There are now eighteen producing wells on Dennis Run, and as every well on this stream that has been sunk to the second sand rock, with perhaps one or two exceptions, has proved to be a paying concern, we think the prospects of those who are here seeking for hidden treasures are very encouraging. The wells bored in the upper part of this valley have proved to be the most productive, and this fact has induced a great many persons to commence operations high up on the hills, or mountains, on both sides of the run. In fact quite a number of leases have been taken, and operations commenced on top of the hills, which are a 100 feet above the level of the river. All are confident that they will find oil as certainly and in as large quantities, by boring on the hill-tops, as by boring in the lowest part of the valley—the only difference being that they will have to bore as much deeper, as they start higher. There will be a great many wells put down during this year on Dennis' Run, on West Hickory, and on the territory intervening between these streams. There is no occasion, we think, for those who are commencing operations, to be discouraged on account of the present low price of oil. Before they will be able to drill to the second sand-rock, we think prices will be much more favorable to the seller. As a result of the present depression, the pumping wells will generally suspend operations. The stock of oil on hand will soon be exhausted, the flowing wells will be unable to supply the demand, which will be vastly increased by the opening up of the Southern market, and the result will be such an advance in the price of oil as will enable the pumping wells to resume operations. We think there will be a demand, in a few months, at fair prices, for all the oil that will be produced.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE Charleston Courier states that the planters of South Carolina propose to try the experiment of White labor. We are very glad to hear it. It justifies its statement by beholding the approach of one hundred German immigrants. But why not begin with the Whites of South Carolina? There must be many thousands of Whites in that State, who must either work for a living, beg or steal it. Why send to Germany for laborers till you have given these a fair trial? We believe in Home Industry.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE latest novelty in photography is a fashion of taking portraits on porcelain watch-dials. By this device one is constantly reminded of an absent friend; and the photographer, mindful of the transitory nature of human attachments, advertises that they may easily be removed if necessary.

Bold Robbery of a Bank by Guerrillas.

KANSAS CITY, (MO.,) Feb. 15.—The bank at Liberty, Clay county, Missouri, was robbed on Tuesday afternoon, of seventy-two thousand dollars, under the following circumstances: Twelve men entered the town about two o'clock. three of whom guarded the suburbs of the place, nine went to the Clay County Savings Bank, seven of whom guarded the outside building, while the other two entered and with cocked revolvers at the heads of Mr. Baird, Case & Son, forced them into the vault and compelled them to deliver up all the money in the bank. As the robbers were leaving, Mr. Baird thrust his head out of the window and gave the alarm. A boy named Wymen repeated the alarm and was shot five times and instantly killed.

The robbers mounted horses and escaped. A party of thirty citizens started in pursuit, followed by fifty more yesterday, but at last accounts no captures had been made. The robbers divided the money at Mt. Gilead Church, ten miles from Liberty, to enable them to scatter if necessary. Three of the robbers were recognized as notorious bush whackers during the war.

Virginia Legislature.

RICHMOND, Feb. 15.—Gov. Pierpoint sent a communication to the Legislature to-day nominating three judges of the Court of Appeals, and fifteen Circuit Judges. The nominations are generally approved by the conservative members of the Legislature, but a decided opposition to one or two names was anticipated.

The Committee on Courts in the House of Delegates, to whom was referred the resolution requesting Senator Underwood to resign, reported a substitute to-day, declaring that his effort to produce the overthrow of the state Government, was wholly inconsistent with the duties of his position and meets our unqualified reprobation. The General Assembly took no action.

The House decided to-day that the Adjutant General of the Commonwealth, heretofore appointed by the Governor, should be elected by the General Assembly.

FIRE IN NEW YORK.

The Mercer Emigration Frauds

PRESIDENT TYLER WILL CASE.

Winooski and Algonquin Race,

&c., &c., &c.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—A destructive fire, this morning, destroyed the city assembly rooms of the American Theatre, and several stores in Broadway. Loss, at least, $200,000. The goods, in the stores, were mostly removed so that the loss of the keepers will be slight. The building was owned by Edward Matthews, Esq. His loss will be nearly $150,000, on which there is an insurance of $80,000.

The Superior Court of this city has denied the application in behalf of the female sufferers by the Mercer frauds for an injunction against the owners of the ship Continental. Messrs. Buck and Chittenden, the counsel will take other steps for their relief.

This morning George Coolbaugh, who was arrested about a week since in St. Louis, on charge of having defrauded Mr. Stebbin, proprietor of the Cortland street House, of $1,000 for board, wines and borrowed monies, was brought before Justice Dowling for examination. After the reading of the affidavit by the clerk, the prisoner was committed for examination. The case is set down for next Saturday.

Julia G. Tyler, widow of the late President Tyler, appeared as appellant vs. David L. Gardiner, respondant, in the general term of the Supreme Court this morning. The case is an appeal from the decision of the Surrogate of Richmond county, before whom the will of the mother of Mrs. Tyler was entered for probate. The will was at the same time contested by David L. Gardiner, the brother of Mrs. Tyler, on the ground that it was made under influences exercised over her by Mrs. Tyler. The Surrogate set aside the will, and Mrs. Tyler is now appealing from his decision.

The Winooski returned to the Navy Yard at 12:30 o'clock to-day. The race was abandoned last night on account of the storm on the ground, when the Winooski had made three complete heats and was just sixty-five mile ahead of the Algonquin, and running at the rate of 2½ knots per hour. At three o'clock this A. M., both vessels started for New York and in three hours the Winooski ran the Algonquin out of sight from her mast-head. The Winooski worked beautifully, making 24 turns per minute with 35 pounds of steam.

The average speed of the Winooski during the trial was twelve knots or fourteen statute miles per hour, and that of the Algonquin was nine and a half knots or eleven statute miles per hour.

Leno Barnham, the mock auctioneer, was to-day sentenced to States Prison for two years and six months for keeping a mock auction shop and defrauding a lady of one thousand dollars.

The trustees of the National Bankers' Express Company have appointed C. P. Williams of Albany, as general superintendent, and authorize a call for twenty per cent of stock.

In addition to the American Theatre building, the Continental Hotel adjoining was damaged to-day. Losses are mainly covered by insurance in this city.

H. H. Pollard has had an interview to-day with the President, to endeavor to get permission to publish the Richmond Examiner again.

The fate of the Bankrupt Bill in the House is doubtful.

Preparations are being made for the reception of General Grant in this city some time next week. A procession on Broadway is proposed.

Damages of two hundred dollars were recovered in court this afternoon against the Hudson River Railroad Company, by a Mr. McDonald, for injuries received, by alleged negligence on the part of the Company's employees.

A dispatch from Washington says: The publication of the Richmond Examiner is discontinued indefinitely. The recent attacks upon the Government and the officers of the United States Army stationed at Richmond, are supposed to be the causes which compelled Gen. Terry to issue the order.

Debts of the Loyal States.

SINECURE SURVEYOR AND NAVAL OFFICERS.

Bill Reorganizing the Judiciary.

IMPORTANT CLAIMS DECISION.

Bancroft and the New York Custom House.

SOUTHERN POSTOFFICES REOPENED.

The Union Pacific Railroad.

NEW YORK, February 15.—The World's Washington special says: The Special Committee on the Debts of the Loyal States had another session to-day for the purpose of determining the basis of the apportionment to which each State is entitled. It appears that Missouri is not disposed to accept her apportionment, she claiming some eight millions more than the Committee are willing to allow. The matter will be resumed again to-morrow.

The Ways and Means Committee have requested the Commissioner of Customs to prepare a bill abolishing the offices of Surveyor and Naval officer. The Commissioner, in a report which he submitted to the Committee, showed to their satisfaction that these offices could be abolished, not only without detriment to the service, but with a very great saving to the Government. They are regarded as mere sinecures and ought to be dispensed with.

The Senate Judiciary Committee had under consideration to-day, Senator Howard's bill reorganizing the Judiciary of the United States. The bill differs very materially from the bill introduced by Senators Doolittle and Henderson. It vests all authority and jurisdiction of the Circuit Court of the United States, in the District Courts of the United States abolishing the former. It provides for the establishment in each of the Circuits of the United States, a Court to be called the Court of Appeals, which shall have jurisdiction of all cases arising in the several District Courts within said Circuit respectively, but no original jurisdiction.

The Times' Washington special says the U. S. Court of Claims to-day decided the case of Pierce vs. the United States, involving the validity of the Floyd acceptances. The decision is adverse to the claimant. The opinion of the Court is that these acceptances were issued without authority of law, for a fraudulent purpose, and therefore the Government is not bound to pay them, although they are in the hands of bona fide holders. Over $1,700,000 are involved in this and other cases dependent upon the result of the above decision.

The Tribune's Washington special says it is reported to-day, and seems to be believed by many, that Mr. Bancroft is a candidate for the Custom House in New York. It is believed even by some who are generally supposed to be in the confidence of the administration.

Mr. Seward gave a dinner yesterday, to which the members of the Diplomatic Corps and other distinguished individuals were invited.

It is expected that Gen. James W. Nye will deliver a speech upon reconstruction to-morrow.

Within the past fortnight some five hundred Post Offices have been reopened in the southern States, and the work is still going forward.

The Union Pacific Railroad having filed a map, in the Interior Department, of the permanent location of the road west of Omaha, Nebraska, for the second hundred miles, the Commissioner of the General Land Office has instructed the local land officers to withhold from sale the odd sections within twenty miles on each side of the road.

The intelligence that Chandler's motion was negatived in the Senate, in reference to the Alabama claims and a recall of the American Minister, had no effect on 'Change.

FRANCE.—The official Yellow Book, containing Drouyn de L'Huys' dispatches to the Washington Cabinet on Mexican questions, has been published, together with a dispatch relating to Drouyn de L'Huys' conversation with Mr. Bigelow, declining all official controversy upon the measures taken by Maximilian, and stating that he did not receive Mr. Bigelow's communication upon that subject as simple information, they being of a purely administrative order.

The Minister added: "Relying upon the equitable spirit of the Washington Cabinet, we expect from it the assurance that the American people will conform to the law of non-intervention, which they invoke, by maintaining a strict neutrality with regard to Mexico."

The Spanish Minister to Peru, and Consul at Callao, arrived at St. Nizaire.

The Manchester market is quiet and steady. Flour very dull, and declined 6d per barrel. Wheat quiet and steady. Corn easier, and declined 3d; mixed, 28s 9d@29s. Beef and Pork steady. Bacon firm. Butter downward. Lard upward and quoted at 67s. Sugar dull. Coffee steady. Petroleum steady at 2s 5d@2s 6d.

London, Feb. 31.—Consols, 86⅞@87 for money; United States 5-20's, 66@66½; Illinois Central Shares, 75½@75¾; Erie Shares, 53¼@53½.

NEW ORLEANS AND MEXICAN ADVICES.

GRAND CELEBRATION OF MARDEGRAS.

Important Imperial Victories Reported.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 14.—Mardigras was celebrated here last evening in a style not surpassed for many years in number and splendor of balls, and other kind of public amusements, and the hosts of people who attended them or filled the streets to watch the maskers. There was only one act of violence in the whole scene of unrestrained mirth and reckless joy.

The Masons of the State are now holding their annual communication. The country lodges are fully represented, for the first time in five years.

The Governor to-day vetoed the Parochial Election bill on the ground that sufficient notice was not given for the election. He has had it in hand nearly two weeks.

Further Havana dates to the 9th state that the steamer Louisiana had just arrived from France. She had on board a special commission from Napoleon to Maximilian, on important business. Also a Belgian General, who will inform Maximilian of the accession of Leopold the Second to the Belgian throne.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 25.—The Imperials had gained great success, in the surrender to them of Re[illegible]antia, by the Liberal Generals Muriaz and Alatoz. The City acknowledges the Empire, and the principal officers are allowed to go abroad from Mazatlan and Sonola, if they wish.

XXXIXth CONGRESS---FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Brown, of Missouri, reported, without amendment, a bill, to reimburse the State of Missouri for moneys expended for the United States, in enrolling, equiping, and provisioning militia forces to aid in suppressing the rebellion. It provides for the appointment of a commissioner to ascertain the amount so expended since August 24th, 1861. It contemplates the payment of troops called out by the Government at the request, order consent or concurrence of Department commanders. It proposes the reduction of direct tax assessed upon the State from aggregate allowed. The Commissioner is required to report to the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall issue a warrant for such amount as may be due. It appropriates $5,775,000 for payment.

Mr. Pomeroy introduced a bill to revive and extend the provisions of an act granting the right of way, and making a grant of land to the states of Arkansas and Missouri, to aid in the construction of a railroad from a point on the Ohio river opposite its mouth, via Little Rock, to the boundary near Fulton, in Arkansas, with branches to Fort Smith and the Mississippi river. Such enactment was made in 1853. This bill proposes to extend the provisions of that act for ten years, and reserves the public lands so granted. It also reserves all lands heretofore granted to the state of Arkansas for railroad purposes, or other internal improvements, which may remain unsold. The bill was referred to the Committee on Public Affairs.

Mr. Wade presented a petition from the colored people of Arkansas, asking for political equality with the white race, which was referred to Committee on Reconstruction.

Mr. Chandler presented a petition of the manufacturers of agricultural implements, asking for a reduction of the excise duties which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Trumbull of Illinois, presented a petition for equal rights and abolition of distinction on account of color among soldiers of the United States Army.

Mr. Nesmith, of Oregon, offered a petition for an increase of the pay of military officers, which was referred to the Military Committee.

Mr. Ramsay, of Minnesota, from the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads, reported a bill for the erection of a bridge across the Mississippi river at St. Louis.

Mr. Wade presented a joint resolution of the Ohio Legislature against the assumption by the General Government of the War Department of any of the States. Referred to the Committee on Reconstruction.

Mr. Sumner presented the protest of the colored delegation that recently waited on President Johnson against the passage of the pending Constitutional amendment.

Mr. Wilson desired to call up a bill for the increase of the regular army.

Mr. Stewart wished to call up the bill for the admission of Colorado.

Mr. Sawyer said, that would lead to a discussion.

After remarks from Messrs. Stewart, Conness, Sumner, Lane, of Kansas, and Wilson, the bill was taken up and read. The constitutional amendment was then taken up.

Mr. Williams spoke in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Hendricks got the floor, but said he was not prepared to speak to-day.

A bill to prevent and punish kidnapping was passed.

A bill to relinquish the title of the United States to certain lands within the city limits of San Francisco was passed.

The Senate then went into executive session adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr Kasson, from the Committee on appropriations, reported a bill making appropriations for the service of the Post Office Department for the year ending June 30th, 1869, which was made the special order for next Thursday.

Mr. Raymond presented a petition of delegates of the Photographers of the various sections of the United States, praying for an amendment of the excise loans relating to their business. The petition was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Raymond presented the petition of Jas. Hamilton and five other citizens of New York city, praying for protection to American industry by a tariff on imports. The petition was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The House then resumed consideration of the bill reported yesterday from the Committee on the Postoffice and Post Roads, providing that the Postmaster General may, whenever in his opinion the public service shall require, until June 30, 1868, deposit postage stamps and stamped envelopes with such persons as he may select for sale. Persons with whom stamps and stamped envelopes are so deposited shall engage to sell and circulate the same, under the restrictions of the Postmaster General, and give bonds in such sums as the Postmaster General may direct, with one or more securities, conditioned for the faithful keeping of the stamps and stamped envelopes so intrusted to them, and for the payment to the Postoffice Department, in such manner as directed by the Postmaster General, of the moneys arising from the sale thereof.

The second section provides that the Postmaster General may allow to such depositaries, a commission not exceeding five percent on all sales of stamps and stamped envelopes. Such persons are to be deemed receivers and custodians of the public money, they shall not sell stamps or stamped envelopes on credit but shall sell them invariably for coin or U. S. Treasury notes, at a price not exceeding the price fixed by law; they shall be subject to all the penalties, dues and failures now provided in cases of receivers and custodians of public money, and of Postmasters and other persons to whom the sale of stamps and stamped envelopes is intrusted.

Mr. Kasson moved to strike out the second section of the bill, the first section he said would accomplish all that was desirable.

Mr. Alley did not think the amendment would improve the bill, the object of which was to enable the people of the South to procure postage stamps at the current rates, without being compelled to buy them at great expense. The bill was merely for business purposes, and to increase the revenue of the Department. It would be no harm to any individual or section of country. The bill was a measure for the interest of the Government and in behalf of freedom and humanity. No man appreciated more than himself the danger of any more legislation which would bring back, into this Hall, those who have never acknowledged their allegiance to the Government, for he held that no men who stood in that position should be entrusted with the power conferred by their admission, but he was in favor of granting all facilities necessary to promote the interests of the great masses of the people of the South. He felt no hostility to those people. As a body they had suffered everything a people ought to suffer for their transgressions, and while he had nothing but sympathy for the people as he had pity for all mankind, he felt that those who led the people into rebellion, the leaders deserved and ought to receive all the torments of the damned.

A debate followed, after which Mr. Lawrence, of Ohio, moved to table the bill, which was disagreed to by a vote of 30 against 108. Further consideration of the bill was postponed for two weeks.

Mr. Alley, from the Committee on Postoffices, reported a bill to amend the postal laws, which authorized the Postmaster General to sell postage stamped envelopes for newspapers or letters at the value of the stamps impressed upon them, and allow dead letters to be returned free of postage, and prepaid letters to be forwarded at the request of the person addressed to another Post Office without additional charge, and also letters endorsed to be returned to the writer shall be free of postage on their return. It also authorizes the transportation of mails by sailing vessels to and from foreign ports at a cost not exceeding sea postage. The mode of advertising letters is left with the Post Master General. Money order fees are made ten cents on ten dollars, twenty cents on one hundred dollars, and thirty cents on five hundred dollars. The order shall be good for one year. The consideration of this bill was postponed for two weeks.

The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole, Mr. Pomeroy of New York, in the chair, and proceeded to the consideration of the Mississippi appropriation bill. This measure failed to become a law, during the last session of Congress.

The clerk having read the clause appropriating forty-six thousand dollars to enable the Commissioner of Public Buildings to properly furnish and repair the Presidents' House, Mr. Stevens explained that heretofore, before the incoming of a new administration, a certain sum was appropriated for a similar purpose. An item was inserted in the miscellaneous bill, which all know failed to become a law, owing to an amendment made to the bill on the motion of Mr. Davis, of Missouri. During the period between Mr Lincoln's death and the leaving of the White House by Mrs. Lincoln, who was detained there by sickness, the building was left a prey to all comers. When President Johnson took possession there was scarcely anything left. Spoons, linens, bedding, and other articles having been open to every body. The steward was responsible, but had failed in his duty. The family had tried to get along, with great economy. Some $1500 of the former appropriation, of $30,000, was anticipated. The sum now proposed was necessary for the purpose indicated.

Mr. Schenck offered an amendment for the removal of the double railing or fence in the old Hall of Representatives, and after a debate of a humorous character it was adopted, with an amendment also providing for the removal of hucksters in the halls and corridors.

EVENING SESSION.

Mr. Newell commenced a speech on the reconstruction of the States, but soon, on account of indisposition, obtained leave to print it and gave the floor to Mr. Strouse, who favored the immediate admission of the representatives elect from the rebellious States. He assumed that a State loyal enough to select a President from in 1864, was sufficiently loyal now to deserve representation by a Patterson, a Cooper, or a Maynard.

He complained that a majority in the House had hitherto done nothing to meet the question on its merits, giving its time instead to legislation for the negro, a score or two of constitutional amendments, a proposition for negro suffrage, and the establishment of a negro alms house to furnish offices to little brigadiers and small lieutenants. He sustained the policy of the President and declared that the people would support that policy, especially the people of the middle, the western, and the border States.

Mr. Defrees argued for the earliest possible settlement of the reconstruction question. He cared nothing for abstract questions. It matters not whether the rebellious States were in or out of the Union. The interests of the whole country required the full restoration of all the states to their perfected rights. Cotton was wanted, and would help to pay the national debt, but its production would be decreased by the delay in reconstruction, and internal trade was checked by the same cause.

He deemed it right to require the States to adopt the amendment passed by the House relative to the basis of representation, and perhaps also another securing to the citizens of each State the immunities enjoyed in others. Then he would admit the Southern Congressmen elect, allowing every district to stand upon its own merits, admitting only those who could take the iron-clad oath.

He held that Tennessee sustained a different relation, and should be admitted at once, in advance of the other States. It had kept a partial delegation in Congress during the war. A new Constitution was adopted which no one could affirm was not republican in form, and a State Government was organized. All this was accomplished during the war. He would therefore vote to admit the Tennessee delegation at once, and prove that the majority in Congress was not governed by a captious spirit.

The House adjourned.

The Bagdad Affair.

THE Hon. Thomas Williams, who is the representative in Congress from a neighboring District, in assailing President Johnson, has acted in a manner entirely consistent with his previous course.—and this, we believe, is equally true generally of the small number who go with him. Mr. Williams, as representative in Congress, stood towards Mr. Lincoln in about the same attitude he now occupies towards Mr. Johnson. He made a speech in the last Congress identical, so far as it was possible to be, the lapse of time considered, with the one he made last week. He was opposed to the administration of the Union party then, he is opposed to it now. Mr. Lincoln's idea was that the seceded States were not dead, and that the war was an insurrection. Mr. Williams took the opposite view and arraigned Mr. Lincoln. President Johnson adopted Mr. Lincoln's views and policy, and, with entire consistency, Mr. Williams arraigns Mr. Johnson. Mr. Williams believed Mr. Lincoln could not be trusted, and favored the movement of Senator Wade and H. Winter Davis, whose manifesto against Mr. Lincoln will be remembered. He was of the opinion that Mr. Lincoln had failed if he had not deliberately betrayed his friends and principles. He has the same opinion concerning Mr. Johnson. Mr. Williams was sincere but mistaken then. No doubt he is sincere now, and, we believe, he is equally mistaken. At the very least, the course of Mr. Williams towards Mr. Lincoln, although as sincere as it was ill-judged, does not entitle him to many followers in his war upon Mr. Johnson.—Commercial.

It may be true that Mr. WILLIAMS, on some points differed with Mr. LINCOLN in opinion, and that he asserted that difference with the fullness and freedom which was his right as a citizen and his duty as a member of Congress. But that he held an attitude of antagonism towards Mr. LINCOLN every man in this community knows to be false and calumnious. When Mr. LINCOLN was before the people for re-election he had no more earnest and cordial supporter than Mr. WILLIAMS; and when he was struck down by the hand of an assassin, the loyal people of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, assembled in mass-meeting, instinctively selected that gentleman to pronounce an eulogy on his memory, which was a labor of affection, and performed in a manner strictly conformable to the opinions he had always entertained for the illustrious dead, and which left nothing to be desired on the part of the profoundest mourner over the national loss.

Mr. LINCOLN was deficient in some of the attributes essential to leadership. Indeed, he disclaimed being a leader, and was content to follow the demands of public opinion. Even in following, he was slow and cautious to a degree that occasionally tried the patience of his best friends. But he was so thoroughly honest, and yielded finally to conviction with so admirable a grace, that in the end he retained the confidence of those who most complained of his tardiness.

The justness of these observations will be apparent by calling to mind the doubt and hesitancy Mr. LINCOLN evinced in executing that great Act of Emancipation, which is his crowning glory. But for the urgency and sharp criticisms of such men as Mr. WILLIAMS he never would have issued the Proclamation. The Conservatives did all they could to increase his fears and perplexities about the matter, and if the radicals had held their peace, the great deed would have remained unaccomplished.

It is undoubtedly true that Mr. WILLIAMS opposed Mr. LINCOLN's scheme for reorganizing, by presidential fiat, the rebellious States. Does the Commercial mean to be understood as holding that a member of Congress ought not to act on his own judgment of public affairs? Does it mean to affirm that it is a crime, or, at least, a fault, for a member of Congress, acting under his oath, to refuse to vote under dictation?

Besides, Mr. WILLIAMS's views and action, on that subject, were in accord with the ideas and purposes of a decided majority in both Houses. Does the Commercial believe Congress to be a surplussage in the Government? and that, so long as it is tolerated, its chief duty is to obey the will of the President?

When Mr. JOHNSON adopted Mr. LINCOLN's policy of reconstruction he knew that the present Congress, as well as the former one, was opposed to it. He knew, moreover, that Congress was, by right, the law-making power. In adopting Mr. LINCOLN's policy, therefore, he volunteered to put himself in antagonism both to Congress and the people. His demand is that the nation shall repudiate its own ideas and plans, and adopt his; that Congress, instead of following the requirements of the people, shall submit to his dictation.

Whether Mr. LINCOLN, if he had lived, would have persisted in a plan of reconstruction condemned by the people, by means of two distinct Congresses, at the least, admits of doubt. His general course was to change his policy to meet the popular will. We believe this matter would have furnished no exception to a rule so uniform, so just, and so fully in harmony with the doctrine and discipline of representative government. So thinking, we maintain that the Commercial does downright injustice to the character of the late President in holding him up as an example and justification of defiance of the will of the people, and of palpable encroachment on the prerogatives of Congress. But, it matters not how many Presidents may have arrogated to themselves authority clearly denied them by the plain words of the Constitution, and by the very genius of free institutions. The more numerous and the more flagrant the examples, the greater the necessity for meeting such usurpations with invincible firmness, and compelling respect for the laws and for the people.

* * *

"In the settlement of our present national difficulties, why should not the opinions of the President of the United States be accepted as being equally good as those of any individual member or any considerable number of members of Congress? * * * * It has long since seemed to us that there is not sufficient deference paid to the opinions of the President in quarters where there is deemed to exist the highest devotion to the Government."—Harrisburg Telegraph.

We hold that the President has a clear right to his opinions on all public questions; and has an undoubted right to make his opinions the guide and basis of his official conduct. Every member of Congress has just the same right and duty. Hence we hold that in all cases on which co-operation is required between the executive and legislative branches a disposition ought to be evinced on both sides to accommodate differences. On other points each branch is at liberty to do what shall seem to it to be best.

The complaint we make of the President is that he is not content with following his own opinions in the line of his duty; but demands that members of Congress shall stop thinking for themselves, and allow him to do all the thinking to be done in connection with governmental matters. Nay, that he goes farther and maintains that Republican members of the Senate and House who do not agree with him in opinion are as much traitors and disunionists as Davis and Lee, and ought to be as effectually put down as they have been.

* * *

THE press, with singular unanimity, express dissatisfaction with the elaborate oration of Mr. Bancroft.—National Intelligencer.

On the contrary, the Press, with singular unanimity, commends and praises the oration. The only journal to condemn it, that we have noticed, is the New York World, and its condemnation is praise.

GUBERNATORIAL.

The Republicans of Crawford county have elected D. V. DERICKSON and S. G. KRICK Delegates to the State Convention. The Meadville Republican says:

"There was a general expression in favor of the nomination of Gen. Geary for Governor, but it was deemed inexpedient to instruct the Committee in favor of any candidate. A portion of the delegates expressed a preference for Hon. J. K. Moorhead."

The resolutions adopted were thoroughly radical.

The Republicans of Chester county held their Convention on the 13th. Delegates were elected as follows: Senatorial, J. SMITH FUTHEY; Representatives, Dr. S. M. MEREDITH, W. B. MENDENHALL and Dr. R. L. MCCLELLAN.

Resolutions were adopted approving the course of Congressman BROOMALL, (Radical,) and instructing the Delegates to vote for GEARY for Governor.

SOMERSET COUNTY.—The Republicans of Somerset held their county meeting on Monday last. General W. H. KOONTZ was elected delegate to the State Convention and instructed to support Hon. JOHN CESSNA for Governor.

The meeting was large and enthusiastic, and the resolutions adopted were of the strong radical stripe. We append one or two:

Resolved, That we are in favor of such a system of reconstruction as shall forever debar from power the instigators or abettors of the late accursed rebellion, whether in the South or North.

Resolved, That we are and forever will be opposed to the restoration to political power in this government, of every Southern political or military leader in the late rebellion, without securing such safeguards as will forever prevent their again raising a parricidal hand for the destruction of our loved and glorious Union.

Resolved, That we advocate as a most vital requisite in the process of reconstruction, the establishing of such a basis of representation as shall not be proscriptive of race or color, and whenever a State shall by its amended Constitution or its local laws violate that fundamental basis, her representation shall be in the ratio of her unproscribed citizens.

INDIANA AND CAMBRIA.—The Republicans of Indiana county have chosen Wm. M. STEWART delegate to the State Convention, and concurred in the appointment of Dr. HUNT, of Jefferson, as Senatorial delegate. As the Senatorial district is composed of Jefferson, Cambria and Indiana, this settles the selection of Dr. HUNT. The delegates were instructed to vote for Gen. HARRY WHITE for Governor.

In Cambria county, Maj. JAMES D. HAMILTON has been chosen as delegate, with instructions to vote for Gen. WHITE.

AN IMPUDENT REQUEST.

The steamer Planter was used during the war by the rebels to carry ammunition and provisions from Charleston to Fort Sumter. She was seized by her colored crew and brought out to our fleet. This act of Robert Small and his companions was one of the most gallant of the war. The Planter was afterwards used by the government, as other prizes were.

Now comes Mr. Ferguson, of Charleston, and applies for the steamer, as formerly his property, "stolen from him by negroes." He has, it seems, taken the amnesty oath, and he makes this the ground of his singular and most impudent demand.—N. Y. Eve. Post.

The demand, in this case, is not a whit more impudent or singular than is the other demand by Mr. FERGUSON, in common with the other rebels of South Carolina, to have all their forfeited political rights restored to them, and the claim is as good in one case as the other. The Post favors the restoration of the political rights, but thinks the demand for the personal property singular and impudent. We cannot see the force of such reasoning. Mr. FERGUSON used the Planter, while he had her, to overturn the government; but he also used his political power to accomplish the same end. We captured the Planter from him, first, and afterwards took him captive, with his political rights. Now, if the logic of the Post be correct, as we admit, that he has, by his rebelliousness, forfeited the Planter, has he not also, by parity of reasoning, forfeited whatever political rights he used in behalf of the rebellion?

WHICH IS THE ORGAN.

The following from the Washington correspondence of the New York Independent, may throw some light on the subject of the Presidental organ:

"Who edits the Intelligencer? This important question has received a solution, if we may rely upon a story the wags are telling. A few days since Colonel F., with a party of loyal Pennsylvanians, called upon the President, but could not see him, being informed he was "engaged." The Colonel returned to the Senate, whose Secretary he is, and there found a bill which had passed both Houses, and only awaited the President's signature to become a law. This he took to the White House at once, and learned that the President was still engaged with the visitor whose presence had prevented Colonel F.'s entrance before. White House etiquette, however, always admits the bearer of a bill, and so the Colonel walked in, and saw, in deep consultation over a lot of newspaper clippings and "proofs," inspecting the former and correcting the latter, Mr. Coyle, of the Intelligencer, and the President.

"The Colonel retired, and since then his paper, which had thereto, with just impartiality, for three days in the week, represented the views of the President, and for the alternate days represented those of the Congress, has since devoted itself exclusively to the Congress!"

The Intelligencer, all through the war, was opposed to the Union cause, and since the return of peace, has opposed every liberal measure advocated by the Republican party. Its sympathies have always been and are now with the rebels of the South.

FRANCE AND MEXICO.

A Paris correspondent of one of the New York newspapers explains how Napoleon III came to make allusion to Mexican affairs in his recent speech from the throne, and why he made it so ambiguous a form:

"At a Cabinet meeting, held but a few days ago, Fould taking the lead on account of these financial difficulties, all the Ministers expressed themselves unanimously in favor of an immediate evacuation, but the Emperor declared that this could not yet be done with safety. When asked what he intended to say about Mexico at the opening of the Chambers, he stated, to the astonishment of his Secretaries, that he wished to say nothing about it. But when they remonstrated that they were unable to bear the responsibility which such an ominous silence on such an occasion would impose upon them, he promised to change his course, and to couch in diplomatic terms some sentences on Mexico."

This confirms the view we took of the matter.

* * *

GETTING ALARMED.—The Louisville Journal is very wisely taking alarm at the consequences likely to flow from the ascendency of the reactionists in Kentucky. Speaking to the legislature of that State it says:

If the majority have any sense left, if they are not deaf and blind and dumb, they must know that the reactionists in this and other States have had a most disastrous effect upon Congress, and have greatly retarded the great work in which the President is engaged.

If the President be overwhelmed and his policy defeated, at the doors of the reactionists of Kentucky will lie a large part of the responsibility and the infamy of the result.

As the editor of the Journal received only three votes from this legislature, when a candidate before it for State Printer, it does not seem probable that his warnings will be heeded much by that body.

* * *

THE National Intelligencer is in fear lest Congress should take it into its head to withhold the supplies, in case its measures are vetoed by the President. It regards the extension of the suffrage to the loyal blacks as a conspiracy to keep the Republican party in power, and it frantically calls upon the people to hold meetings to sustain the President in defeating the conspiracy. If it was a conspiracy to put the Democrats in power it would be all right, but having a contrary purpose it must be wrong. Any measure that keeps the Democracy out of office is necessarily unconstitutional, tyrannical and outrageous.

The President has several times lately sneered at those members of Congress who have offered amendments to the Constitution for consideration, and he signified to "a distinguished Senator" his high disapproval of these attempts to amend that instrument. It seems, however, that when the President was himself in Congress he was in favor of turning the Constitution upside down; and of radically changing its character. The Chicago Republican says:

In the Thirty-first Congress, Mr. Johnson (Congressional Globe, vol. 23, p. 623) of Tennessee asked and obtained leave to introduce a joint resolution proposing amendments to the Constitution. These amendments were intended to abolish the Electoral College in the election of President, to divide the whole Union into single districts, provide that the people of those districts should vote directly for President and Vice President, and that the candidate having the highest number of votes in a district should count one vote for President. If no person had a majority of the whole of these districts, then a second election was to take place. He also proposed to abolish the election of Senators by State Legislatures, and make them elective by the people of the States; and to abolish the existing Supreme Court, and provide for the election of a new court by the whole people, each Judge to serve for a term of twelve years. These amendments were certainly as radical, sweeping and revolutionary as any ever proposed.

Subsequently Mr. Johnson proposed that the Constitution be amended in six other vital particulars, making in all no less than nine distinct propositions introduced by him at the same session of Congress to amend the Constitution; these amendments destroying the whole existing theory of the Constitution, and placing there another theory, in fact establishing an almost new form of government.

* * *

SOLDIERS' VOTES.—The Supreme Court of Michigan decided last fall that the Constitution of that State did not permit the reception or counting of soldiers' votes cast outside of the State. On the strength of this decision Mr. BALDWIN, dem., tried to oust Mr. TROWBRIDGE, Rep., from his seat in Congress, he having been elected by soldiers' vote. The House, however, has confirmed Mr. TROWBRIDGE in his seat, thus deciding that the soldier has a right to vote, even in cases where such voting is not provided for by the State Constitution.

* * *

THE REVENUE BILL.—This bill, which we published a day or two since, has passed both houses, and is now in the hands of the Governor. It will undoubtedly be signed. Its principal provisions are the imposition of a tax on national bank shares of stock, and on the gross receipts of railroad companies, and the absolute repeal of the State tax. The people will therefore be relieved, during the current year, of the two mill State tax, a measure of relief which will be gratefully felt in all parts of the Commonwealth.

* * *

A RELIC OF THE PAST.—The Brownsville Clipper notes the death, on the 23d of December last, at his residence in Fayette county, of YATES S. CONNELL, aged 93.

At the time of Burr's conspiracy he was a resident of Virginia and a Justice of the Peace. He issued the warrant upon which AARON BURR was arrested, and was present at his trial. He afterwards emigrated to Pennsylvania.

* * *

THERE is a large party in Virginia which is anxious to make Gen. LEE Governor of that State; that party is headed by J. B. BALDWIN, a leading member of the legislature and lately a member of the Rebel Congress; and this J. B. BALDWIN is the man who headed the Virginia delegation that waited upon the President the other day, drawing out from him the speech so loudly commended by the Copperhead and Rebel press.

FEMALE SUFFRAGE.

MESSRS. EDITORS GAZETTE:—Your correspondent, "H.," in Wednesday's paper, in giving the final dissertation on "Female Lecturers," managed to split up his subject so well in the first paragraph, that the remainder of his article treated on two topics entirely foreign and distinct from the heading of his piece. And as "Presbyterian" seemed to be of a religious turn of mind and to look at things in a moral point of view, I suppose he will not care to continue the subject now that it has branched off into politics, and unless he has handed in his reply, I would like to have the privilege of answering "H's" essay on suffrage for "women and negroes."

I fear your correspondent will have the ladies down on him as much as they were on on "Presbyterian" for attempting to read them a lecture, if he speaks so indiscriminately of "women and negroes." The two subjects ought not to be treated in the same article—first, because the women would object to being treated on a par with negroes; and second, because the negroes would not be willing to receive suffrage on the same grounds as those on which it could be granted to women. The women might not agree to the two topics being amalgamated in the same article, and the negro might contend for suffrage on principles which would still exclude the fair sex from the polls, and both together might object to it for the reasons of "H," because the same reasons would give it to lunatics, and to foreigners immediately upon their landing, and to all infants above the years of twelve or fourteen, and to the stranger of a day, and in fact would bring together such a gathering of human beings as is not often seen except at a fair or a hanging; and there would be seen on a glorious equality, all mutually engaged in cancelling each other's votes, the sane and insane; and the man whose ancestors came over in the Mayflower and the man just landed since May; and the man who went to war and his wife who cut his fingers off when home on furlough; and the grandfather would be bargaining with his youngest descendant for his vote; and the husband and his helpmeet would be there to kill each other's ballot; and perhaps the celebrated Dickinson, (male) of New York, and the equally celebrated Dickinson, (female) of Pennsylvania, would be denouncing each other from opposite platforms; and, of course, in size and sex and shade there would be no invidious nor tyrannical distinctions. And in the midst of this confusion worse confounded, if "H" were standing by, it seems to me, that even his all-embracing and philanthropic mind would begin to consider that to be an American citizen was no longer [illegible] it was, since it had become so cheap [illegible] mere fact of having been born and weaned entitled one to the privilege.

But if color legislation, (in favor of which I have not said a word,) will not bear the test of reason, why not attack it with the lance and logic of reason, instead of hoisting it up to public view alongside a proposition which men look at as absurd and which the women of the land lay no claim to, but regard as an insult to their womanly character, the mention of which is ill-tasteful, and in favor of which I never knew a woman of my acquaintance to be, for they feel that when they get the ballot and all their kindred rights they can no longer claim the courtesy and the favor and the privileges which they now enjoy as the weaker and the gentler half of society. Where is the policy of looking at negro suffrage in a light which only renders it ridiculous? Why, to defend it, should you disguise yourself, like Jeff Davis, in the garments of a woman.

The women of America are content to be taxed and be represented by their loving husbands and their brothers who are proud of them! They have all the "liberty" and "happiness" and power too that they demand, in being the wives and mothers of those who do vote and whose votes they can control by their mighty influence at home. And I consider a woman who knows her duty, and does it, as compared with a man who would subvert society with his extreme and ill-digested doctrines to be the better man of the two. And when the Negro gets the ballot let him have it because of his right to it and not because it is so worthless a thing that it matters not who wields it!

PROXY.

JUST LOOK AT IT.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—Under the above caption the Commercial of Wednesday last sets out with a kind of lecture to all persons and presses, who chose, in their own way, and in their own language, to express their views in opposition to the President on reconstruction. In its zeal to be hugely conservative, the Commercial says: "Now it will be observed that the men and the presses who denounce the President the loudest, are the men and the presses in closest sympathy with Mr. Sumner, and his new sect, whom the President no doubt meant when he referred to the extremists of the North." If this language had emanated from the Louisville Journal, it would be in full keeping and consistent with the conservative professions of that paper for the Union, when it argued that a speedy settlement and compromise of our national troubles could be effected by hanging Lincoln on one end of a pole, and Davis on the other end. Is it not humiliating to hear this talk in our midst, about extremists in the North, as applying to the slavery question? For my own part, I had hoped that the conservative and copperhead cry about abolitionists, and extremists of the north, was played out, and that nobody was afraid of it any longer, but it seems the cry is to be kept up. The fiat has gone forth from the White House, and the conservative or middle men, and middle papers, must keep it up. Now then, since the Commercial has drawn the line, and fixed the associations of those it denominates a "new sect," let me fix the associations of those who are [illegible] in their praise of the President's policy. They are not all copperheads, nor traitors of course, but are not all the copperheads and traitors loud mouthed in favor of the President's policy and fulsome in adulations of President Johnson? Show me a copperhead or a traitor and I will show you an advocate of the President's policy, and as a matter of course a disciple in full communion with conservatives and middle men of the Cowan and Raymond stripe.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE Rio Grande correspondence of the New Orleans Times, dated Feb. 5th, gives the verdict of the Court of Inquiry on the Bagdad raid. The Court found that the attack was inaugurated and carried out by R. Clay Crawford, representing himself to be a Major General in the Liberal Mexican service, assisted by other adventurers; that several United States soldiers were seduced into the enterprise by these men, did so without the knowledge or consent of any officer of the United States, and that every means in the power of those in authority was used to prevent the soldiers from engaging in the affair. Our officers employed every precaution to prevent the carrying away or destruction of property, and seized all goods brought across the river. Not only did the officers of our Government discountenance the raid, but refused to help it in any way. The commission were unable to implicate any United States officer in the affair. At the urgent request of the proper authorities of the Republic of Mexico, troops were sent to Bagdad to preserve order, and their presence alone prevented promiscuous pillaging. In no other way were our officials concerned in the affair at Bagdad.

THE Commercial Advertiser of Buffalo, a journal of Conservative tendencies, has a letter from an army officer at Mobile of which the following is an extract:

"The policy of reconstruction now going on is work thrown away. It will never succeed. These people are now as rebellious as they ever were, and more so than they were four months ago. I have been through a greater part of this State, and some of Mississippi, and there is no use in disguising the fact that none wish to live under the United States Government. I mean none of the Southern people, except the blacks. Why, our National airs can not be played here without exciting a tumult and not a flag has been displayed in this city except by the United States authorities. I am ashamed to say that some of our officers object to doing these things because it exasperates the people. Congress is doing just right in keeping them out. They ought never to be represented in Congress until this generation shall have passed away, for they never will be loyal until they are dead."

Two or three visitors at the White House in the month of October, had held a long conference with the President. It chanced that the general tone of the conversation did not reflect the views of a prominent Western Pennsylvanian, who was an interested listener, and by imputation, was made a sympathizer in the tendency of the debate. This misled the President, who entered somewhat glowingly into his plan of adopting a policy that should "slough off," as he termed it, the radical and disturbing element of the Republican party, and bring about "an union of men of moderate views." Turning to the gentleman referred to, he asked him if this would not be the result in his part of Pennsylvania. The locality of the party addressed came from, furnished him with a convenient figure, and he instantly replied, "Since you ask me, Mr. President, I must tell you that if you slough off the radical element of Republicanism in our section, you will have left what we get when an oil well fails, a few old barrels and a tremendous stink!"

A LETTER from Vicksburg supplies the following synopsis of the by-laws adopted by a company of Mississippi State Militia recently organized at the capital of that State:

"The Company votes to adopt the regulations and tactics of the Confederate Army.

"No one admitted as a member of the Company who was not in the Confederate Army, or who was not friendly to the Confederate cause. Motto—'Try us.'

"The uniform to be gray, but the button and insignia of rank to be the same as in the United States Army."

It is in favor of such an organization that the United States troops have been withdrawn from half the Southern Territory! The prospect is a delightful one for loyal men—be they white or black.—New York Tribune.

RECAPTURE OF COTTON.—Acting Rear Admiral H. K. Thatcher, commanding the Gulf squadron, reports to the Navy Department, under date of "Flagship Estrella, Mobile Bay, February 6, 1866," that on the 28th ult. General Wood, United States army, commanding the department of Alabama, made application to Commander John Madigan, senior naval officer off Mobile, for a boat sufficiently large to carry fifty men, to proceed up the river to retake a boat recently captured by guerrillas. The expedition was successful and the boat recaptured, with a quantity of cotton, which had been stolen from her, and five guerrillas. The recaptured steamer, cotton, and guerrillas were turned over to the army authorities.

AT a funeral service, at Friendship, McDonough county, previous to the interment of a soldier who had been starved to death in a rebel prison, a man was present robed in a complete rebel officer's uniform, to which no person made any objection until he manifested and expressed rebel sentiments, by such remarks as, "why didn't you let him stay where he was—he was in hell anyhow," and other insulting remarks. After the service was entirely over, and the corpse committed to the grave, Mr. Reb. was requested to doff his uniform, which he refused to do, whereupon some soldiers present disrobed him in less time than we can tell it.—Ill. State Journal.

THE Nashville Press has information that Burksville, Ky., is becoming as great a petroleum center as Titusville. Four specimens of oil were exhibited, one of which was of the consistency of thick sirup, which is of excellent service for lubricating purposes. Large lots are leased at $100 readily, the lessees giving from two to three-eighths of the oil obtained. The town is filling up with saloons of all kinds and the old inhabitants are much dismayed at the reckless living of the new comers. An ordinance was passed fining every man caught drunk on the streets $5, in consequence of which there is an astonishing plethora in the treasury.

THE Memphis Bulletin says the steamer W. R. Carter, which exploded a few days ago, had on board $300,000 in currency, which was sent from the Assistant Treasurer at St. Louis to the care of the First National Bank, of Memphis, for the Paymaster, to be used in paying off the disbanded colored troops. The boat passed down late at night, and the money was thus unfortunately permitted by mistake, or in consequence of no authorized person being at the river to receive it, to pass by. It is said the whole loss will fall on the Adams' Express Company that had it in charge.

"A PRETTY DISH TO SET BEFORE A KING."—During the festivities of Christmas a large cake of very rich appearance was sent by some unknown person as a present to General de Manteuffel, Prussian governor of Schleswig. The gift was received with great pleasure by the governor's family, and one evening it was placed on the table with no little ceremony. But on cutting it, the tempting inside was found to be merely a shell, containing numerous copies of journals prohibited in Schleswig by order of the general.

SLEEPING WITH THE HEAD TO THE NORTH.—Herr Dr. Julius von Fleckweiler, an eccentric German physician, recently died, leaving in his will what he considered a secret for increasing the years of our life. His own age was 109, and he attributed it to the fact that he always slept with his head to the north, and the rest of his body as nearly as possible in a meridianal position. By this means, he thought, the iron in his body became magnetized, and thus increased the energy of the vital principle.

THE territorial legislature of New Mexico has repealed the Free Negro law, and the Peon law is amended so as to make servitude under it entirely voluntary. A convention was ordered to frame a State Constitution. The election of delegates is to take place on the first Monday in March, and the Constitution is to be submitted to the people on the last Monday in April, so that the State may apply for admission before the adjournment of the present session.

NOT a few of the colored regiments in the Southwest are kept in service in order to repair the levees on the Mississippi river. Will somebody explain what authority there is for such a use of United States troops and why the Government should go into the engineering business for the benefit of plantation owners in that country.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE Randolph county (Ind.) Journal says that J. S. Nickum, of that county, is supporting eight sets of children—one set by his present wife, three sets by former wives, three sets belonging to former wives, one set belonging to the husband of one of his former wives by a previous wife—about eighteen children altogether.

THE Connecticut Republicans do not enter the canvass in that State in a very amiable frame of mind. At a Hartford meeting to elect delegates to the State Convention, resolutions indorsing the President were voted down, and Postmaster Cleveland was hissed for advocating them.—N. Y. World.

A CAPTAIN, who had a sound sleeping mate, caught an Irish boy in the middle watch frying some pork and eggs he had stolen from the ship's stores, to whom he called out, "You lubber you, I'll have none of that." "Faith, captain, I've got none for ye," replied the boy.

THE Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says:

"At the close of Mr. Delano's speech, on Saturday last, Judge Spalding, of Ohio, bade him good bye, and several Copperheads crowded around and congratulated him."

ANOTHER OIL STRIKE.—We understand that a good vein of oil was struck a few days since on the Cheatham farm, on the west fork of Crocus, in Cumberland county, by the Franklin Oil Company of this city. The depth reached was 327 feet.—Louisville Courier.

ONE of the lions of the skating season at the New York Central Park is said to have been a young man who has lost both legs, but skates swiftly and gracefully with a pair of artificial ones.

O'BRIEN county, Iowa, was organized some five or six years ago, has never had a population of over thirty, never polls over ten votes, and yet has a county debt of $50,000.

OIL OPERATIONS ON MONTOUR'S RUN.—Two or three companies are forming for the purpose of boring for oil on Montour's Run.

The First American Flag ever Woven from American Bunting Raised Over the Senate Chamber.

On Tuesday morning General Benjamin F. Butler introduced to the officers of the Senate Mr. D. W. C. Farrington, agent of the United States Bunting Company at Lowell, Massachusetts, who presented to them for the use of the Senate, a magnificent flag manufactured by that company, twenty-one feet fly by twelve feet hoist. It is believed to be the first real American flag ever raised over the Capitol of the United States. Heretofore all our flags have been manufactured from English bunting, and every effort made to manufacture a durable texture capable of resisting the wind and the air has signally failed. Gen. Butler having ascertained this fact at the Navy Department and feeling an interest in the U. S. Bunting Company in his own town, informed Captain Fox that he believed that company had produced a fabric that would be superior to the foreign article. A test was accordingly ordered by the Navy Department, fully realizing the confident anticipations of General Butler, and proving the American bunting to be better in color and in quality than the English production. The General wrote to the Secretary of the Senate for authority to make a present of one of these flags to be raised over that body. That officer having consulted Mr. Foster, President pro tempore, the General's proposition was cheerfully accepted, and to-day the flag was placed in the hands of the Sergeant-at-Arms. To-morrow morning it will be hoisted to the Senatorial flag-staff, and unfurled to the breeze.—Wash. Cor. Phil. Press.

Du Chaillu's Discovery of African Pigmies.

An English paper says: "If we are to believe M. Du Chaillu, the dwarf inhabitants of Western Africa are a peculiarly exceptional race. They have only short tufts of hair upon their heads, and are thus strikingly different from the less nomadic races whose heads are covered with hairy turrets. They have a wild, anxious, and timorous expression in their eyes. Although M. Du Chaillu gave several beads to induce some of them to remain, and was brought to them stealthily by the natives, all the men, except a young adult disappeared, leaving a few women behind. It would appear that his visit alarmed them; for although he stayed a week in the adjacent village, the Obongo—as they are termed—were no more to be heard of.

The following are the measurements he was enabled to make: The only adult male measured 4 feet 6 inches; but as one of the women reached 5 feet ¼ an inch (she being considered extraordinarily tall,) M. Du Chaillu has no doubt that some of the men are equally tall, or even taller. The other women whom he measured had the following heights: 4 feet 8 inches; 4 feet 7½ inches; 4 feet 5 inches; and the smallest 4 feet 4½ inches. He considers the average height to be four feet 5 inches to 4 feet 6 inches. The smallest woman had the largest head, viz., 1 foot 10½ inches in circumference; the smallest was 1 foot 9 inches round."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ AYER'S AGUE CURE, for the speedy cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.
Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arises from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.
Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S SON & CO., and by all Druggists. ja16:2md&wF

BETROUVEY'S TURKISH BANDOLENIAN. What can be more acceptable than anything that will beautify? that will restore nature's decay by stopping the hair from falling out, restoring its natural color, making it to grow in luxuriance and beauty, assist in putting it up according to the present style and fashion and keep it in place? This Betrouvey's Turkish Bandolenian Hair Tonic will do, and for proof we refer you to any person who has tried it. It is acknowledged to be the beautifier of the age, the only Hair Tonic and Restorer worthy of the name. In Turkey, in France, in England, in America—everywhere where the "Bandolenian" is known—it is pronounced the ne plus ultra of Hair Preparations. Remember, it is free from all metallic poisons that are contained in most Hair Colors and dressings. It is the extract of many flowers and herbs, beautifully put up, an ornament to the toilet.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

A Destructive Fire—Seven Tenement Houses Destroyed—Sixteen Poor Families Rendered Houseless on a Bitter Cold Night.

We have to record another of those bitter calamities which almost always fall upon the poor, and in the coldest weather. Sixteen poor suffering families have been rendered houseless and homeless in the midst of most bitter cold weather, whether by a cause beyond their control or not, no one knows. We have only to lay the facts before our readers, and at present do not wish to comment upon them. We have only to say that a wide field has been thrown open for those of large means who are charitably inclined, and no more appropriate time to dispense their charity could be found than at the present.

On the corner of Washington and Prospect streets, extending up Prospect street, stands, or rather did stand, a row of four-story frame tenement houses, owned by Messrs. Carson, Lafferty and McCoy. These houses were nine in number, the seventh one from the corner being a brick, in which McCoy himself lived. The others were sub-divided among many tenants, many of them poor widows, who eked out a bare support by plying the needle or bending over the wash-tub. In the third house from the corner of Prospect lived two widows named Mrs. West and Mrs. Kennedy. At a quarter past eleven o'clock last night a fire was discovered in the coal-shed used jointly by these two widows. How it originated they could not tell, but it was too far under way when first discovered to be extinguished without the aid of the Fire Department. This aid was promptly on the ground, but, with frozen and bursted plugs, was for some time unavailing. In the meantime the fire continued to feed on the surrounding frames, licking out its forked tongues in every direction; and as a high wind was prevailing, it was not long before the building was a sheet of flame. It immediately began to spread both ways—up and down—and in a very short space of time, the row was on fire from the corner up to the brick, including it. In the mean time, the firemen had succeeded partially in thawing out some of the plugs, and Capt. Dave Hall was on hand doing good work with the Stewart Hook and Ladder Company, and he was soon aided by the Hook and Ladder Company of Allegheny City. Before the fire had fairly taken hold of the brick house, several streams were at work, and their potent influence began to be felt. The water as it would fall upon the adjoining houses, porches, or wherever it happened to fall clear of the fire immediately became a sheet of glittering ice. Some of the firemen themselves looked like walking icebergs. Manfully did they combat the devouring element, gaining upon it inch by inch, until with the assistance of the brick walls of McCoy's house, the flames were stayed. There was a time when it was thought that the fine Fifth United Presbyterian Church edifice, just completed on the corner of Washington and Webster street, must have been destroyed, but the changing of the wind swept the flames directly up Prospect street.

The sight was one that would have opened the hardest heart that witnessed the misery there apparent. Turned out of comfortable beds without a moment's warning, and hurried into the cold night air, their little stocks of furniture piled indiscriminately in the street, sometimes whole and sometimes broken, the poor women were running around, wringing their hands in anguish and despair. Suffering with cold, they would not be comforted until some kind neighbors forced them into their houses, and made them partake of the warmth of their fires. Think of it, as you sit down to your comfortable meals this morning, that these families, most of them, have lost their all, and not only have not where to lay their heads, but in many instances have nothing to eat, except such as is provided them by their poor neighbors!

At the late hour of night that the fire occurred, and owing to the confusion incident upon the occasion, it was impossible to even approximate the loss, or ascertain whether or not there was any insurance upon the buildings. The firemen worked nobly, and deserve the greatest credit for their conduct upon this occasion. We are also indebted to the Allegheny fire department for their opportune assistance. Had the weather been less severe, and the plugs in working order, there is no doubt but that the fire would have been confined, if not to the building in which it originated, at least to the ones on either side adjoining.

Exhibition of the Pittsburgh Gymnastic Association.

The members of this association will give an entertainment at Wilkins Hall on Tuesday next, February 20th, as may be seen by referring to another column. The programme has been prepared with great care and labor, and no pains have been spared to make this exhibition superior to any of the kind ever given in this vicinity. The performers thirty-five in number, have the reputation of being the most expert and experienced in their line in [illegible] our most eminent and useful citizens, including Professionals, Merchants, &c. There is no institution that has been conducive of more good in regard to the health and even happiness of its members, than this one, and we sincerely trust that the public will extend that liberal patronage it deserves. The proceeds are to be applied to repairing and adding to fixtures and apparatus to the Gymnasium.

The Oratorio.

The Oratorio of Judas Maccabæus last night was a grand success. At an early hour the hall was filled to its utmost capacity, and the concert was commenced without any unnecessary delay. The pieces were all rendered with great effect, and there was not one who did not do honor to the part assigned them. Where all did so well we hope we may not be deemed invidious if we mention the performances, on the part of the ladies of Miss Jones and Miss Cora Brown, and on the part of the gentlemen, of Mr. James Digby, and Dr. McCandless, Jr. All however did extremely well and deserve the greatest praise. As there were many who did not have an opportunity of hearing the Oratorio, would it not be well to repeat it? We merely make the suggestion, but hope that it will meet with a favorable response.

Fire.—The alarm of fire last night about dark was occasioned by the burning of a chimney in one of Mr. McCullough's houses on Irwin street, occupied by a widow woman by the name of Korick. The sparks flew fearfully for a while, and as the wind was high there was great danger of a conflagration. The Allegheny Engine was immediately on the ground, ready to throw a stream of water should it be needed, but it soon spent itself without any further damage than giving the chimney a good cleaning.

A Long Needed Institution.—It may not be generally known that Mr. William McCoy, No. 45 Fifth street, has opened a coffee cellar which he runs all night, where hot coffee, oysters, cold ham, pies, &c., served up in the best of style, may be had at all hours. No liquor is sold, hence the house is a quiet, desirable resort, and will, when it becomes generally known, meet with a liberal patronage.

An Annoying Accident.—The boiler which supplies the steam with which Odd Fellows Hall is heated, let down yesterday, and the consequence was that all the various departments of the building were without heat last night. Had it occurred when the weather was warm, it would have made no difference, but as the weather was not warm, ugh! it makes us shudder to think of it. It will be all right to-day.

Important Resolves.

A party of well-known young men met, not a hundred yards from the Monongahela House on Wednesday evening, and after appointing one of their number President and another Secretary, passed unanimously the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, The price of all kinds of intoxicating drinks is too high, considering the villainous quality of the "truck" sold: therefore,

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to go on a "grand spree" this evening, to be kept up until twelve o'clock midnight.

Resolved, That before starting out on said "spree" we all repair to the office of the nearest magistrate and take a solemn oath that we will neither touch, taste nor handle the accursed drink after the hour of midnight on Wednesday the 14th instant.

Resolved, That we pledge our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honors to keep the above pledge inviolable.

Resolved, That the foregoing preamble and resolutions be published in all the English and German papers in the city, who will do so free of charge.

Signed by the officers and properly attested.

When the party were last seen they were calling out the spirit of the first resolve, and it is hoped that upon a "sober second thought," they will as strictly obey the teachings and obligations of the second.

The Cold Weather.

The jolly youngsters of both sexes who rejoice in the amusement skatorial have been praying for a cold snap, and we think their prayers have been answered with a vengeance. To use the phrase of an Illinois farmer, last night would have frozen the horns off a muley bull. We have heard of people getting low, but if ever they get as low as the mercury was last night, they are gone up. It went out of sight in ordinary thermometers, and what it did in extraordinary ones is more than we can tell. It subsided, let down, caved in, went under, turned a corner, got out of sight, vanished, vamosed, changed base, skedaddled and become thoroughly demoralized. Old Boreas himself, not having the fear of Mayor McCarthy, Bob Hague, or the night police before his eyes, went on a spree, and kicked up an awful dust, become very insulting, tweaked people's noses, tossed ladies' clotheses, and played old Father Nicholas generally. If this is the kind of weather they get up at the North Pole, it is no wonder that they keep it locked up in icebergs, and only light a candle once in six months, in order to let it see its way out. Cease, hyperborean warbler with your zephyrs, and don't come it so muchly. Give us the dose a little longer, and let it be adulterated with a little warm.

Amusements.

THEATRE.—We could scarcely realize the fact, but so it is, that as cold as the weather was last night, the theatre was again filled to see the peformance of the Seven Sisters. This evening it is to be repeated for the benefit of Mr. McDonough and Miss Sophia G. Kuhn.

In consideration of the fact that a great many ladies have been debarred the pleasure of seeing this great scenic piece from the fact that they could not take their children after night, it has been determined by the manager to give a grand matinee on Saturday afternoon, in order that all may see it. In conversation with Mr. McDonough last night he assured us that his engagements would preclude the possibility of a stay beyond this present week. So remember the Matinee at two o'clock Saturday.

OPERA HOUSE.—Miss. Jean Hosmer, than whom a much finer actress in her particular line has seldom appeared in the boards of a Pittsburgh theatre, takes her farewell benefit to-night at the Opera House, upon which occasion she will appear in the great five act play of Judith of Geneva, concluding the performance with Tobin's splendid three act comedy of of the Honey Moon. This is a great bill, and ought to fill the house. To-morrow afternoon a matinee will be given, at which Macbeth, King of Scotland, will be presented.

The Meagher Brothers.

Before saying anything else in regard to these gentlemen, we would state, that like most other persons they are extremely tenacious of their name, and do not like to be called Meagre, when it is pronounced of though it was pronounced "Ma-har." Well, notwithstanding the piercing cold of yesterday, they made their appearance at Central Park. The audience although not large was respectable, and there was not one present who did not feel amply repaid for the exposure to the raw air. The coldness of the day prevented any of the slow graceful movements which it is their pride to exhibit, and consequently the entire display was one of rapid movements. Their long graceful sweeps and sudden shifting, were the wonder of all present. They are young men of elegant appearance, and in their neat costume present a very handsome appearance. There was but one verdict yesterday, and that voluntarily came from the lips of every one who saw them, and that was "we never saw any thing to equal it." They will appear every afternoon and evening as long as the ice lasts.

Union Park.

Ever since the last freeze the managers of the Union Park, Allegheny, have been preparing the ice for a freeze, and now that it has come, they have a splendid sheet of ice, and their Park is thrown open to the public. The Union Park is a beautiful sheet of ice, and being convenient to the Manchester Passenger Railway, is easy of access. It is well lighted; the saloons are very comfortable, and the refectory of the first order. A more pleasant amusement than skating is hard to find, and Union Park is just the sort of a place to enjoy it. By the way we should mention that whenever there is skating there the Manchester cars will carry little red flags, and any information in regard to the Park can be obtained at Super's Drug store, corner of Penn and St. Clair streets.

At a Meeting of the journeymen Painters, held recently, it was unanimously resolved to demand an increase of wages, to take effect on and after the first of March next.

FROM YESTERDAY EVENING'S GAZETTE.

Playing Police Officer—An Ugly Mistake.

On Wednesday afternoon an overcoat was stolen from a gentleman doing business in the Diamond, and suspicion fell upon two men each of whom carried a carpet sack, and who had been in the house about the time the coat was missed. A description of the men was given to the police, and among others who heard the description was Mr. Theodore Frank, of Diamond alley. About eight o'clock in the evening, Mr. Frank observed two men passing up Liberty street each carrying a carpet sack, and supposing these to be the suspected parties, at once halted them. They indignantly denied the accusation, but Mr Frank, putting on the air and authority of an officer, obliged them to accompany him to the Mayor's office. Here they were recognized as two well known citizens, and as they were on their way to take the eastern train, when arrested, they were not in the best of humor. They were promptly discharged, however, and Mr. Frank has learned that it is not safe to "jerk up," as a thief, every man who carries a carpet sack. The statement that Mr. Barry, one of the Mayor's police, had made the arrest, is not correct.

An Old Lady Burnt to Death.

This forenoon, between ten and eleven o'clock, an accident of a shocking character occurred at the residence of Mr. Matthew Harbison, the well-known auctioneer, of Union township, about four miles out the Washington Pike. The mother of Mr. Harbison had been an invalid for some time, and was in the charge of a female attendant. At the hour stated, screams were heard issuing from her room, when her son, who happened to be present, having been kept at home on account of the severity of the weather, rushed into her room and found the bed on fire. With the assistance of a farmer, who had stopped at the house for the purpose of warming himself, the old lady was lifted out of the burning bed, but her under clothes had taken fire, and she was terribly burned about the limbs. One side of her face was also badly burned. Some person seized a bucket of water and threw it over her, and in about ten minutes after the fire was extinguished she died. The deceased was eighty-five years of age, and one of the oldest residents of that section of the country. It is not known how the bedclothes caught fire, as [illegible] an inquest this afternoon.

Police Matters in Duquesne Borough.

There has been a little "stir" in police matters in the quiet borough of Duquesne, within the past two days. Andrew Speicher was charged before Justice Buhoup, on oath of Louis Meyers, with obtaining board by false pretense. The defendant was arrested, and the case was settled on the payment of the board bill. Speicher, out of revenge, turned round and sued Myers for selling liquor to minors, and the accused was required to enter bail for his appearance at court. A tavern keeper, who sells on Sunday or to minors, (and we don't say that Myers does either) should never sue any body for a board bill, unless the bill is very high! James Milligan was accused of the larceny of a hog, valued at thirty dollars, the property of Falden Freuenstein. A warrant was issued, but the accused has not yet been arrested.

Paid for his Fun.—Frank Strothers, colored, entered Lafayette Hall, on Wednesday evening, where a fair was being held by a number of colored persons. He was under the influence of liquor, and acted in a very disorderly manner, committing an assault upon a man named R. J. Davis. He was taken to the lock-up, and this morning Mayor McCarthy fined him twenty-five dollars and costs, which he paid. Mr. Davis preferred a charge of assault and battery against him, but the prosecution was withdrawn, inasmuch as Strothers was adjudged to have paid dearly enough for his frolic.

Assault with a Pistol.—A man named James Stewart was arrested last night, on oath of Mrs. Sarah Grant, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill. Stewart entered the premises of the prosecutrix on Water street, near Wood, and attempted to carry off some shirts, which he alleged that he had left there to be washed. The woman objected to his taking them, when he drew a pistol and fired at her, the ball grazing her head. The accused will have a hearing this afternoon.

Stolen Again.—Some time ago, a seal skin overcoat, valued at two hundred dollars, was stolen from the house of Mr. Denny, on Rebecca street, Allegheny, and recovered by the police. The article was pawned at a house on Smithfield street in this city, handed over to the owner, and a man named Watson arrested and committed for the theft. On Tuesday night the same coat was stolen by some expert thief, who entered the hall of Mr. Denny's dwelling and made off with the garment, which was hanging on a rack. No clue has been had to the perpetrator.

A Sharp Dodge.—Painter, the alleged poisoner of his wife and child, escaped from the Kittanning jail, a few days ago, by resorting to a very sharp dodge. The offense was committed in Westmoreland county, but as the accused was arrested at Freeport he was lodged in jail at Kittanning. A few days ago, an order was sent to Judge Buffington, asking for the removal of Painter to Greensburg. The jailor was ordered to remove the prisoner, when he informed the judge that officer Golden, and a man representing himself as Deputy Sheriff of Westmoreland county, had a few days before demanded and receipted for the body of Painter. The parties to the escape should be arrested and punished. The stomach of Painter's wife was brought to this city, some weeks ago, for chemical analysis, and we believe it still remains here.

A Faithless Son.—An old man named Barton, residing in Allegheny, gave his son Henry a sum of money, amounting to about one hundred and fifty dollars, for the purpose of having him deposit it in the bank. Henry started to carry out his father's instructions, but failed to return, and although the police have used due diligence to find him, no clue as to his where abouts has been had. He is an old offender, having served a term in one of our public institutions for robbing the post office at Fairview, in this county, some years ago.

Honorably Discharged.—James Maratta, the young man who was arraigned before Mayor Morrison upon a charge of larceny, preferred against him by Matthew Connelly, had a hearing yesterday evening and was discharged, there being no evidence whatever against him. The prosecutor was drunk at the time that he is alleged to have lost the money, and if on the number of drinking houses he frequented, probably expended it. Maratta has always borne an unimpeachable character for honesty.

Matinee at the Theatre.—Manager Henderson will give a Matinee at the Theatre on Saturday afternoon, when McDonough will produce the grand scenic drama of the Seven Sisters, which has been drawing such large houses during the present week. This will give the little folks, and others who cannot attend in the evening, an opportunity to witness the beautiful scenic effects which have endered this play so popular throughout the country.

An Insane Boy at Large.—Officer Bell, of the Fifth ward, on Wednesday afternoon, took into custody a lad named Jacob Werle, whom he found wandering about the streets, and conveyed him to the Mayor's office. He is about eighteen years of age, and is partially deranged. His parents or friends are requested to call at the Mayor's office and take him into custody.

The Cambria County Murderers.—The application for a new trial in the case of Howser and Howser, the Cambria county murderers, will be heard before the Supreme Court at Philadelphia, to-day. The men are already under sentence of death, and although the evidence against them was of an extraordinary character, there can be little if any doubt as to their guilt.

Praiseworthy.—At an early hour this morning, officer Patrick Murray, of the night police, discovered fire in an oil warehouse on Market street, between First and Second, and forcing an entrance succeeded in extinguishing the fire before it had got much headway. He was favorably reported to the Captain of the Watch, by Lieut. Jordan.

Sudden Death.—Emanuel Leese, formerly a resident of Findley township, this county, died suddenly at Hookstown, Beaver county, a few days ago. He had gone out to cut timber, and not returning at meal time, search was made for him, and he was found lying in a fence corner in a dying condition. He expired soon after.

Fell off a Coke Oven.—A man named Jos. O'Brien sought refuge from the cold, last night, on the top of a coke oven near Dam No. 1, on the Monongahela river, and while there rolled or fell off, falling a distance of seven or eight feet, and breaking several of his ribs. He was conveyed to the Mercy Hospital.

Gold continues weak and drooping, closing in New York to-day at 137½, which is the lowest point it has reached for some time. Government bonds are steady but without material change. Brokers are buying compound interest notes at 107¾ for June, 1864; 107 ½ for July; 106⅞ for August; 105¾ for October; 104½ for December; 102½ for May, 1865, and ¾ to 1 per cent premium for August, September and October, 1865.

There is nothing doing in our local stock market worthy of special notice. There is a very good demand for Government bonds and bank shares; Insurance Stocks quiet, while Oils seem to be almost entirely lost sight of. Columbia is offered at 24½@25, with buyers at 24@24½. Sales of Second National Bank stock at 125, and the same figure offered for more—held at 128. We also hear of 45 being offered for Pennsylvania Insurance, and 63 for Pittsburgh—the former is offered at 48.

By private telegrams we learn that there was more activity at the New York petroleum board to-day, and in some instances higher prices were realized. Bennehoff Run sold at 16½; Pithole advanced to 10¼ against 9¾ yesterday, Oil Creek 4, and United States was reported firm at 17¾. Some of our Pittsburgh stock dealers are operating pretty largely in the stocks above named.

Philadelphia stock market is reported very quiet, with very few sales at the Brokers Board, and business generally in that city is said to be very dull. In Boston, there has been but little done in copper or mill stocks for a week past and prices are gradually receding.

—In the annual report from the Treasury Department in December, the Secretary estimated for the naval service during the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1867, a gross expenditure of $43,982,457. The Naval Appropriation Bill for the service of that year has already been reported in the House of Representatives, and is now being considered in Committee of the Whole. The estimates are being rapidly cut down, and in the present temper of Congress to economize the expenditures of the Government, so as to apply as large a portion of the revenues of the next fiscal year to the reduction of the principal of the public debt as possible, we are led to believe the expenses of the navy will not exceed $25,000,000. The war budget, which Secretary Stanton asked for the same fiscal year, amounts to only $39,017,416, a sum total so economical in itself, (considering the vast reduction of the army which it implies,) that we have no reason to look for a less expenditure. But for the civil service of the same year, $42,165,599 is estimated, and here the country, we think, has a right to expect a reduction in the actual wants of the service. The whole estimates of the year as returned to the Treasury Department, and by the Secretary reported to Congress, are as follows, compared with his own estimated revenues:

FISCAL YEAR—JULY 1, 1866, TO JUNE 30, 1867.

Expenses.		Revenues.
Civil	$42,165,599	Customs	$100,000,000
Pensions	17,609,640	Excise, &c.	275,000,000
War	39,017,416	Lands	1,000,000
Navy	43,982,457	Miscellaneo's	20,000,000
Interest	141,542,069
Total	$284,317,181	Total	$396,000,000

Leaving applicable to the reduction of the principal of the public debt $111,682,819. By a reduction of $34,317,181 in the civil and naval expenses, and an addition, which we have a right to deem not improbable, from the actual revenues for seven months of the present fiscal year, of $150,000,000 to customs and excises, this reduction of the principal of the public debt in 1866-7 may be made nearly three hundred millions. And in view of such a prospect, and the fact that no deficit will occur in the last three-quarters of the present year—although $112,194,947 was prudentially estimated by Mr. McCulloch—and the additional consideration that the public credit of the United States abroad as well as at home has been immensely improved by the restoration of peace and the rapid development of trade and other sources of revenue and taxation, we are not surprised that the Secretary should ask authority from Congress to fund the floating obligations of the Government at five per cent. per annum, gold interest, by making part of this interest payable abroad. We believe such a rate will be found entirely practicable both at home and abroad, long before either the seven Thirty per cent. currency falls due, or the compound interest notes are required to be provided for, or the regular greenback legal-tenders used be reduced beyond the $400,000,000 suggested by Mr. McCulloch, when the outstanding total of greenbacks was $428,160,569, and the national bank currency $213,239,530. As the latter is since being raised to $300,000,000, authorized by law, it seems not an unreasonable contraction of the former that their total should be brought down to about a corresponding sum.—N. Y. [illegible]

[illegible] since our last, but remains firm, especially for the good and better qualities of all descriptions. The sales are 1000 bags Rio, per Nora, a re-sale, at 17½c; 200 do from Europe, 20 @; 500 mats Java, in lots, 28, gold; and 1400 bags St. Domingo, for export, $12,31¾ per 100 lb gold, in bond. We notice the arrival at Savannah of 3,01 bags per Ann, direct from Rio Janeiro. The stock of Rio in the country is 47,534 bags here, 8000 in New Orleans, 3000 in Mobile, 3000 in Savannah, 10,000 in Baltimore, and 3000 in Philadelphia—total 74,534 bags.

Sugar—There has continued a steady good demand for raw for home use since our last, with a strong and advancing market, a further improvement of fully one-quarter of a cent having been established since Friday last. Good and qualities above are scarce and wanted at more than the usual difference in prices. We now quote fair refining Cuba 11 c good do 11½@11¾, fair to good grocery 12¼@12¾, prime to choice do, 12¾@13¼. Molasses sugar in bxs, 9¼@11¼; the same in hhds, 9½@11 ; and No. 12 bxs, 12¾, 4 mos. The Fung Shuey, from New Orleans, arrived 12th inst. brought 10 hhds, the first of the new crop—it is said to be class choice grocery. Refined, too, tends upward, with a continued good inquiry from consumers—hard 17½c, soft white 16@16½, and yellow 14 @15 . Messrs. Stuart's revised quotations are 17½c for the best crushed and granulated, 17½ for ground, 16¾ for white A, and 16¼ for yellow C.

Cincinnati Iron Market.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 14.—Iron—We have to notice a firm market without change in prices. The demand for pig has been good. We quote Ohio hot blast at $53@55 for foundry, and $48@50 for mill; cold blast—$60 for common and $65@75 for charcoal; Tennessee cold blast, $55@62, and Missouri hot blast, $55, blooms, $110@125; bar, steady at 5½@7c for common and charcoal horse shoes; 8½@8¾c, and mule do, 9¼@9¾c for Shoenberger's.

Lead and Shot—We quote pig lead at 11½@11¾; bar at 11½@12½c; sheet and pipe, 14½c; shot steady at $44@45 per keg, assorted.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, Feb. 15, 1866.

The general markets continue dull and depressed, with but little prospect of any immediate improvement. There is but a limited demand for any of the leading articles of produce, and we have but few round lot operations to report.

GRAIN—Wheat continues dull, with a supply largely in excess of the demand and we have no sales to report. Oats—sale of 1 car, in bulk, at 42; and 1 do do at 42—delivered; small sales from store at the usual advance. Corn is unchanged—one car Ear sold at 68. Rye is in demand, and we can report small sales of prime at 75. Barley is dull and neglected—not enough doing to establish quotations.

FLOUR—Is steady, with a fair local demand for Flour, and the market is firm, and prices maintained. Regular sales from store at $9 to $9¾ for Spring Wheat, and $10 to $10¾ for fair to choice brands of Winter Wheat. Rye Flour is dull and nominal at $5¼ to $5½ per bbl. Buckwheat Flour is held firmly at $9 per barrel.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is reported steady, with a fair jobbing demand, and we can report regular sales at 15 for Shoulders; 18 for Ribbed Sides, and 24 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard may be quoted quiet at 16c@17 cents for country, and 18@18½ for city. Mess Pork is selling at $28½@29½, with small sales. Bulk Meats—no movement.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET,

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE
THURSDAY, Feb. 15, 1866.

The sudden and remarkable change in the weather, spoiling the calculations of those who were certain of a speedy resumption of navigation between here and Oil City, has also stiffened the Crude market a little, but there is no change to note in prices, and we continue to quote at 19@20, bbls returned, and 24@25, bbls included. Sale of 155 barrels, on the spot, at 25; and we have a sale of 3000 bbls reported to be delivered in Philadelphia, in March, at 31. There is still some inquiry for considerable amounts to be delivered here on the opening of navigation, but we are not cognizant of any other contracts having been closed since Wednesday. Refined, in bond, is inquired after, both for present and future delivery, but at very low figures. We have a sale of 200 bbls reported, prime light straw to white, on the spot, at 38½, though we are of the opinion that but very little oil can be bought here at the figure named. Free Oil is dull and drooping. Sale of 181 bbls Residuum at $4¼ per bbl, and 181 bbls Naptha, in bond, at 16c. Messrs. Buffum, Kehew & Co. report having sold 42 bbls of their Sperm Lubricating oil at $1,50 per gallon.

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, Feb. 15, 1866.

CATTLE—The receipts of cattle were fair this week, being about up to the usual average, but the demand was very light, and the market consequently ruled dull and heavy, and prices are still declining. The sales were unusually light, not exceeding 250 head, and six cents gross, is the highest figure we have reported—one bunch of extra cattle changed hands on Saturday last at 7¾. Prime to extra cattle, however, would have brought 6½ to 7¼ cents this week, but these particular grades were held at from 7½ to 8 cents, and to the wide difference between the views of buyers and sellers, may be attributed the very meagre transactions. There was a fair number of shippers in attendance, but as they have been losing heavily for some weeks past, the disposition to buy is not very active, and holders generally prefer to to ship further east, rather than sell at the figures offered here. Common cattle are particularly dull, being almost unsalable, and we quote nominally at 4 ½ to 5 cents. For good fat cattle, suitable for retailing in the Eastern markets, buyers were offering six cents, gross, while holders asked from 7 to 8.

HOGS—The market for Hogs has been dull and a little depressed during the week which has just closed, and, as compared with last week, prices have declined from ¼ to ½ of a cent per pound, and we now quote fair to good averages at 9½@10 cents gross. The arrivals have been comparatively light for some days past, but the supply was fully up to the demand, and, to-day the market closed dull with a drooping tendency.

SHEEP—Market quiet and steady with a fair shipping demand, and we quote at 4 ½ to 6 ½ cents, gross, the latter figure only for extra fat mutton sheep. The arrivals continue fair, and the supply has been equal to the demand all week.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

Finance and Trade.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Railway speculation was rather firm at the early session of the board, and steady at the Stock Exchange, with a rise on Rock Island. After Board there was quite an active demand for stocks, and higher prices were generally made. Hudson River sold up to 104½, and Michigan Southern to 70¼. Rock Island and Ohio and Mississippi were especially active. The market at second and last boards was slightly off from the highest point. The advance has been quite sharp on some of the leading shares, and there was considerable disposition to realize profits at the close.

The following were the closing prices at 4:30 P. M.:

New York Central, 89¾; Erie, 79¼; Hudson River, 104⅝; Reading, 101¼; Michigan Southern, 70¼; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 81. Government Stocks were all better and more active under the news from Europe. State Bonds were firmer but rather quiet.

The Commercial says: Stocks have taken another upward bound. At the morning Board there was a decided preponderance of buyers, and the list throughout showed more strength than for some days past on all the leading stocks. Some heavy blocks were bought.

Governments still strong but quiet, there being but few buyers and as few sellers. Money is in more demand for brokers, but surplus balances are more ample, and a majority of call loans are made at five per cent. Discounts quiet, with little produce paper on the market.

Dry goods and other merchandise are in ample supply. First class names are discounted, mostly at 7@7½ per cent., with exceptions at 6½ per cent. Paper passes at 8@9 per cent.; other grades at 10@15 per cent. The Sub-Treasury to-day commences the payment of interest upon 7-30s, the total amount falling due being $10,950,000.

Gold is easier; loans are now made at 1-32 per cent. per day. The Government has sold small amounts during the last few days which has eased the market. Foreign Exchange is firmer owing to the extreme scarcity of produce bills. The leading drawers ask 108 for 60 days. Sterling and francs are correspondingly higher.

RIVER NEWS.

ARRIVALS.

Yorktown......Ebbert......Cincinnati.

RIVER, WEATHER, ETC.

Yesterday was decidedly the coldest day of the season, if we are any judge of cold weather. The wind fairly cut to the quick, and the breath froze as it left the mouth. The consequence is that the rivers have again commenced to tumble. Last night there was but twelve feet scant, and the river was falling. The Allegheny was running out heavily with very heavy ice. Navigation is completely suspended. Those boats that were to have gone [illegible] in their shingles, and will wait [illegible]. There was not much [illegible] in consequence of the [illegible].

The Winchester did not get away yesterday, in consequence of the river being [illegible] floating ice. She will await [illegible].

The Rubicon, Capt. Haslett, while passing under the Wheeling bridge on Tuesday [illegible], struck her chimneys against the bridge, knocking them down, smashing her pilot house, and according to the Wheeling Intelligencer, of yesterday, injuring only one man, and that only slightly. A pilot who came up from there yesterday however, states that five men were hurt, and that very severely.

The Golden Era sunk at Dogham Riffle, four miles above Guyandotte, a day or two since, in eight feet of water. It is very probable that the present run of ice will make a complete wreck of her upper works, if it does no worse.

The Armadillo going down, and the Armenia coming up, have both been forced to lie up at Shippingsport by the heavy run of ice. The Glasgow, Capt. Johnston, is in the same predicament at Wellsville.

The America, Leni Leoti, Leonidas and Camelia are somewhere between here and Wheeling, and should have been in before this had it not been for the ice.

As soon as the weather moderates, the Marietta will leave for Nashville. She was to have left yesterday, but got froze up.

The Yorktown, Capt. Wash. Ebbert, fought her way up through the ice, and is now tied up at the landing.

The gunboat Sandusky, which has been lying just below the St. Clair street bridge was taken out day before yesterday by the towboat Tiger, and is now on her way to Cairo. The Marietta and Umpqua are still here, but will probably leave on the first rise, after the river shall have become free from ice.

A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.

PITTSBURGH, January 31, 1860.

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with a bad cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP. I bought, the first time, a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself for a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so. WM. WILSON,

Alderman, Fifth Ward

PITTSBURGH, April 24, 1857.

READ THE TRUTH.—DR. KEYSER:—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough without benefit, among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough. JOHN DARIN,

Robinson street, Allegheny.

PITTSBURGH, December 31, 1858.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case. JOHN C. LITTLE,

Witness: B. M. KERR. Peebles township.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14, 1848.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough, which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me that he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.

JOHN McGINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable Pectoral Syrup. Almost everybody around us has the cold, and are enquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles the last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. A. Alts and Mr. P. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., told us they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.

Yours, respectfully,

J. S. WATTERSON & SONS.

PITTSBURGH, November 18, 1858.

DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines in general, it affords me pleasure indescribable to recommend your PECTORAL SYRUP. As a medicine, it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be afflicted with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for its peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.

I have been, more or less in my life, affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent me speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found purporting to cure the above, nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.

Yours, most respectfully,

EDWARD J. JONES,

Cashier Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, March 14, 1865.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken. J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Cough Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. It knocked the noise out of my cough, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with. I have not used more than one-half of the bottle, and I can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name in this regard as you think proper.

E. F. PRATT,

Messenger Common Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE.—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I had been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad was it that I could not sleep. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whom I could name, but do not do so. I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?" Go to Keyser's, on Wood street, and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears every day in cold-catching periods of the year. And we can, from actual experience, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral," in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Near two weeks ago we went to Pittsburgh, with one of the most distressing, contrary, mulish, unsubduable coughs we ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact, it seemed rather to have improved by practice, and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this stage of the siege, we coughed our way to Keyser's, No. 140 Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the "Pectoral," took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered, after a brief, but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's famous Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Dec. 14, 1859.
